The polls will be open from 2 to 5 o'clock P. M., in the country, and from 71/2 to 1 P. M., in the city.

Two judges and one clerk will constitute a board who will receive the ballots and make out certificates of election for the delegates elected, to be presented to the County Convention.

Your committee earnestly hope that there may be a full attendance at the primary election and that good and true men may be selected. The times require the active exertion of all lovers of the Constitution and our Democratic Republican Institutions. UNWARRANTED ARRESTS, FANAT-ICISM, BIGOTRY, INTOLERANCE and PERSE-CUTION are now carried out in their most dangerous forms, and it is only left to the ward, or if you regard the earnest efforts strong arm of the Democracy to correct of your neighbors, come one, come all, and those abuses by a vigorous application of show silk stockings, cotton lords, etc., that the principles of the time-honored Democratic party.

McCollom, Mr. Colin Colonel; and Capt. Geo. R. Riker, to Major, of the 105th.

Another Regiment Returning .- The 28th Ohio, a re-enlisted veteran regiment, arrived at Camp Cleveland on Friday morning from Toledo, having been ordered to rendezvous there at the expiration of their furlough. It is under command of Lieut. Col. Wm. A. Chovate, and numbers about President, and Captain Bacon, Judge Ad-350 men. It was raised at Defiance. The regiment will remain in camp for a day or R. W. Caldwell, First Ohio Heavy Artillery, two before returning to the field.

SALE OF THE ANGIER HOUSE.—The Angier stract of the charges: House at Cleveland changed owners last week-it having been purchased of its former proprietors by William Kennard, Esq., of the Atlantic and Great Western Railway. The purchase will not, however, affect its present management, as the lease of Col. J. P. Ross will still run three years longer.

Another Newspaper Office Destroy-KD.-The Toledo Blade learns that on Thursday last the office of the Democratic Press, at Wauseon, was almost entirely destroyed by members of company K, 38th regiment. The Blade says they forced an entrance to the building, and then throwing the types out of the windows "played smash" with the press, stands and other furniture of the LINDEMAN & Co.-The well known establishment of Lindeman & Co. is still flourishing and more abundantly supplied than ever, with all the luxuries and delicacies of home and foreign production. "Gus," "Antone" and the other popular attaches of the establishment are ready to cater with their accustomed smiling good nature to the wants, appetites and tastes of their customers and visitors. No wonder Lindeman & Co.'s is such a favorite place of resort.

FIRST WARD.-There will be a meeting of the men of this Ward, at the Gay street Engine House, on Monday evening, the 22d inst, to make a further effort to clear the Ward of the draft. A little more money must be raised immediately. Every man who has contributed and all who have not, are expected to be at the meeting. Let none stay away. There is no time to spare! . [Journal copy.]

SEVENTH WARD MEETING AT HETTE-SHEIMER'S HALL-Enrolled men of the Seventh Ward! A few men in your ward have worked earnestly and faithfully, and if you will come out to the meeting on each, you will put the ward beyond the draft. If you have any pride in the ward; if you do not wish to be drafted; if you know of any that have enlisted from the working men cannot be beat!

ELLSLER'S ATHENEUM.—There was quite full house at the Atheneum last night All seemed highly entertained, and frequent were the demonstrations of approval and delight.

As we expected, the "Sea of Ice" has passed off with the approach of warmer weather. If it should return, we hope we shall not have such intense cold weather as accompanied its advent last week. We believe Manager Ellsler's company have all escaped safe and sound from their adventures and perils by sea and land.

The popular and romantic play of the "Marble Heart" will be produced at the Atheneum to-morrow (Monday) night. Its beautiful tableaux, its thrilling and startling incidents, and, indeed, the plot and entire texture of the play keep up a lively

. With such talented actors in the principal characters as Mrs. Effle Ellsler, Mrs. J. Stuart, Mr. J. Lewis, and others of Mr. Ellsler's excellent company, the "Marble Heart" cannot fail to be fitly represented, and to afford a delightful evening's entertainment.

COURD-MARTIAL TRIAL OF MAJOR CALD-WELL .- At Cincinnati, on Friday, the Courtmartial, of which General N. C. McLean is vocate, took up the case of the late Major for a short time in command of the military post at Cincinnati. The following is an ab-

2. Aiding in obtaining the payment of claims against the United States Government, knowing the same to be false.

3. Entering into an agreement, combination and conspiracy to cheat and defraud the Government of the United States by obtaining the payment of false and fraudulent claims.

Major Caldwell, through his counsel, Judge Whitman, presented a written statement declaring himself innocent of the charges; that he was a victim of a combination of dishonest men; etc.

The further hearing of the case was postponed until Tuesday.

ACCIDENTAL DEATH .- We learn from the Strouse Cox, of Pickaway county, a private in Co. E, 68th O. V. ABOLITION PATRIOTISM TESTED. - The Mount Vernon Banner of Saturday say that "in Butler township, Knox county, as in every other township in the State, there exista lot of cheap patriots, of the 'Loyal' Abolition persuasion, who are always boasting that they are ready to 'spend their last dollar and spill their last drop of blood,' to carry on the existing war. Some of the young Democrats down there, for the purpose of testing the honesty and sincerity of these Abolition bloviators, proposed that they would come up to Mt. Vernon and volunteer, if the Abolitionists would do likewise.' But as might be expected, the Abolitionists, with one or two exceptions, squarely backed out. One Abolitionist, squarely backed out. One Abolitionist, however, named Morgan Fawcett, son of Samuel Fawcett, a violent war man, who is pretty well known in this county, volunteered. But the young gentleman had scarcely enrolled his name before his patriotic daddy, in a high state of excitement, came up by express to Mouut Vernon, to have his son's name stricken from the roll.—

It asked for an appropriation of a proper sum, say $500, to be intrusted to a ing the cow-pox, or to persons primarily vaccinated, with matter obtained from affeeted cows. The petitioners say:

It is the unanimous opinion of the medidiseases when obtained from children secondarily vaccinated.

The petition was referred to the Board of Health with instructions to report thereon. The small-pox is also prevailing in Indianapolis. A dispatch to the Enquirer states that two hundred cases are reported to the Board of Health. The disease is spreading.
